

About GATR Journals:

Benefits of Publishing with GATR Journals:

GATR Journals is a peer-reviewed quarterly journal that enriches the understanding of the historical, contemporary, and emerging issues relevant to business and social sciences fields. The article shall address any research on theoretical and empirical questions about the business and social sciences fields. GATR Journals are a core collection of scientific fields related to Accounting, Finance, Economics and social sciences, and other various related sub-fields.

Subscription-based model: Authors will receive free access to the online version of an article.

Language Editing and Proofreading: GATR sponsors the basic level of language editing and proofreading by a native editor.

Circulation: GATR journals print copies are circulated in large numbers and deposit into the National Library of Malaysia.

Theory and Practice: Published articles aims to bridge the theory and practice with strong policy implication derived from cutting-edge multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary researches.

Digital Certificate of Publication: Authors will receive a free digital certificate of publication.

Relationship Building: The editorial board works closely and constructively with authors to ensure the manuscript communicates its findings and policy inside clearly.

GATR journals expect the articles sent should have a sharp analysis and rigorous methodologies quantitative or qualitative as well as written in an engaging and analytical style. The GATR journals do publish original research, reviewing research, and book reviews. However, GATR journals do not publish journalistic or investigative style of articles.

GATR journals publish the following types of manuscripts:

- Scholarly articles : approximately 4000 – 8000 words
- Review articles : approximately 1500 – 3500 words
- Book reviews : approximately 1500 – 4000 words
- Practice notes : approximately 1500 – 3500 words
- Research notes : approximately 1500 – 3500 words

Submission Guidelines:

- The manuscript submitted to GATR journals shall never be published elsewhere.
- The GATR Journals are published in English only (British English and American English) consistently throughout the text, and please be sure to write clearly and use correct punctuation.
- The articles must be submitted through Open Journal Systems (OJS) for double-blind peer-review.
- Submissions should be accompanied by an abstract with a particular writing style which consist of sections namely, Objective, Methodology, Findings and Novelty, Type of Paper, Keywords, and JEL Classification. It is compulsory for authors to write their abstracts in this style.
- References should follow APA reference with Harvard citation style. A special attention has to be paid to references next to each source DOI has to be indicated.

Primary Sponsor:

Membership:

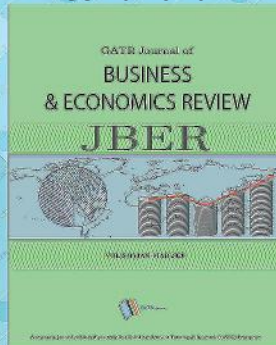

Abstracting and Indexing:

ISSN 2289-8506

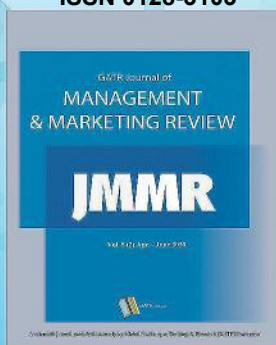

ISSN 0128-2611

ISSN 0128-259X

ISSN 0128-3103

ISSN 0128-2603

GATR Journals are the Rich Resource to Support You in Strengthening Research and Academic Career

Please submit online: <http://gatrenterprise.com/GATRJournals/submissions/> OR via email to the respective journal email.

gjbssr@gatrenterprise.com | afr@gatrenterprise.com | jber@gatrenterprise.com | jfbr@gatrenterprise.com | jmmr@gatrenterprise.com